Notes to assist with completing this claim form

Note 1: Relationship to the deceased.

Enter the capacity in which you are claiming. For example, are you:

- The Proposer of the policy: i.e. the owner of a policy written on the deceased's life.
- The deceased's Executor: i.e. the person appointed in the deceased's will to ensure that his / her wishes are carried out in relation to how his / her assets and property are to be dispersed.
- The deceased's Nominee: i.e. the person designated by the policyholder to receive the proceeds of an insurance policy in the event of his / her death. If this is the case, we will need to see a copy of the Nomination Form.
- The deceased's Assignee: i.e. a person or company to whom ownership of policy benefits has been transferred by deed of assignment. If this is the case, we will need to see a copy of the Deed of Assignment.

If you are none of these, please state your relationship to the deceased, for example spouse, son / daughter, parent, sibling, etc.

Note 2: Payment Details

Payment will be made by direct credit to your bank account, so it is important that you complete the life cover claim discharge form properly.

Please remember that once the payment reaches your account, it will take a minimum of 2 or 3 days to clear and allow you access to your money.

If you are not the policy owner and you do not provide a Grant of Probate, then we are obliged to settle to the deceased's next of kin as established in the following order by the law of intestacy: (i) spouse, (ii) children, (iii) parents (iv) siblings according to the rules in the Administration Act 1969.

In all circumstances, Partners Life Limited reserves the right to insist on sight of a Grant of Probate if is deemed necessary.

Note 3: Grant of Probate (title to claim)

A Grant of Probate is a document issued by the Court that enables the person(s) named in it to deal with the assets and belongings (the 'estate') of a deceased person.

You can apply to have your claim settled without producing a Grant of Probate if the total claim will be for no more than $15,000.

Note 4: Declaration

By signing the declaration, you confirm your acceptance of the statements contained therein. If there is more than one person who is legally entitled to claim on the policy(ies), then the declaration must be signed by each such person. If you are applying to have your claim paid without producing a Grant of Probate, then you must agree to recompense us if we have to make payment again to a subsequent claimant who produces a grant. Please note that every effort should be made to find the original Policy Document(s).
